DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-15 are pending in the application and are addressed herein.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a nucleic acid a vector comprising the nucleic acid sequence and host cell comprising the vector, classified in class 435, subclass 320.1.
 - II. Claims 11-13, drawn to pharmaceutical compositions comprising compounds capable of regulating the expression of the MCP-1 gene, classified in class 514, subclass 2.
 - III. Claims 14-15, drawn to method for treating atherosclerosis or cancer using a nucleic acid sequence of invention I, classified in class 514, subclass 44.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in a materially different method of such such as expressing the encoded protein in a cell for purification or using the nucleic acid as a template in a PCR reaction to amplify the nucleic acid sequence of interest.

Art Unit: 1635

3. Invention II is unrelated to inventions I and III. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case invention I is drawn to a nucleic acid sequence, and invention III is drawn to a method of treatment using the nucleic acid sequence, while Invention II is drawn to pharmaceutical compositions comprising compounds capable of regulating the expression of the MCP-1 gene. The different inventions clearly have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each Group is not required for the other Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1635

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of transcription factors encompassed by the claims:

AP-1,
SP-1,
NF-IL6,
NF-kappa B

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 1-10 are generic to this group of species.

7. Additionally, this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of compounds which interact with transcription factors, encompassed by the claims:

Jun,
Fra-1,
ATF-2,
Jab-1,
Fra-2, and
A mixture of the above

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, 11-13 are generic to this group of species.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
